

RESKILLING FOR IT

Ronald Kleijn

Senior Lecturer, Founder and National Program Manager
Amsterdam University of Applied Sciences

MAKE IT WORK

MAKE IT WORK FACTS

1/3

of the participants
are women

740+

people retrained

200+

affiliated employers

97%

of the students still work within IT

91%

of the students still work for the employer
where they started

Great diversity of students

Low failure rate

8%

MAKE IT WORK

1

Selection procedure

- Assessment
- Preparation
- Employer market
- Matching

Recruitment

2

Fulltime education at Make IT Work

- Courses and projects focused on IT
- Training and coaching on professional skills

5 months

3

Fulltime employment

- Four evening sessions at the university of applied sciences

6 months

4

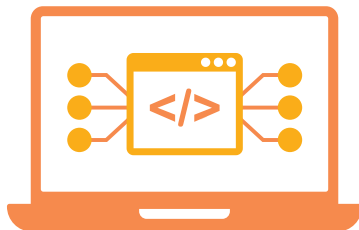

Employment

- The student and employer will discuss a new contract

Completion

MAKE IT WORK PROGRAMS

- Business & Data Analytics
- Low-coding
- SAP Business & Data Analysis
- Security
- Software Engineering

WHY MAKE IT WORK

Reliable quality

Many start dates throughout the year

Not for profit

Efficient recruitment and selection processes is cost and time saving

Broad coverage because Make IT Work is offered at various universities of applied sciences.

The offer of courses is market driven

THANKS

WWW.IT-OMSCHOLING.NL

RONALD KLEIJN
R.KLEIJN@HVA.NL